PORT TERMINALS SEEK EXEMPTION

Legislation Provides Relief for Violations of Law

The Federal Maritime Commission has forwarded legislation to Congress that would enable the agency to forgive possible past law violations by port terminals that failed to submit rate agreements to the commission.

The commission chairman, Join Hariee, said that the bill was intended to relieve waterfront operators of the threat of millions of dollars in fines.

The threat of heavy penalties ruling in 1961 that agreements such as leases were subject to the Shipping Act of 1916 and thus were required to be filed with the commission before becoming effective. After the court decision the nation's pier and terminal operators told the F.M.C. that they hesitated to file because they would in that way disclose previous violations on which her master, Capt. Demetrios fines as high as $1,000 a day Sigalas. could be assessed.

The bill sent to the House and Senate last week seeks to arrival of the 17,362-ton liner amend the Shipping Act to prowide for the exemption of 26. certain terminal leases from penalties.
